UConn SSW Mission

Our Mission

- Our mission is rooted in a passion for and commitment to social, racial, and economic justice and the improvement of human well-being, both locally and globally. Through our bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degree programs, we strive to prepare the next generation of micro and macro social work practitioners and scholars through excellence in teaching and learning both in the classroom and through innovative field and research experiences. Our faculty is committed to the generation and wide dissemination of cutting edge and impactful knowledge, informed by social justice and anti-oppressive lenses, through traditional and innovative research methodologies.

UConn SSW's Commitment to Student-Centered Teaching and Learning

- The School of Social Work is an inclusive, equitable community that provides life transformative learning opportunities, ensuring access and success for all students. Our curriculum prepares BSW, MSW and PhD students to contribute to the social work profession at micro, mezzo, and macro levels, fostering a lifelong commitment to anti-oppression and social justice.
- Goal 1: Prepare BSW, MSW, and PhD students for anti-oppressive practice at macro, mezzo, and micro levels, grounded in the values and ethics of the profession.
- Goal 2: Ensure access to underrepresented groups and others by increasing flexibility of SSW course offerings, field offerings and guidelines, and degree options.
- Goal 3: Support the learning of all students in our programs, including students from underrepresented groups, ensuring that students have the access, resources, and supports to take full advantage of their educational experience (including coursework, field, and extracurricular activities).

Role of Faculty Advisors

Faculty Advisors -

To find out who a student's advisor is, contact Chelsea Lebron or the Program Director (Rachel Schwartz for MSW students; Paula Nieman for BSW students)

- Faculty Advisors Have Two Primary Roles: Both Academic and Practicum
- Every matriculated student (both in practicum and not in practicum) is assigned an advisor at the beginning of the school year
- The Faculty Advisor:
 - oversees the student's academic and practicum performance for the year
 - Works with students and instructors and possibly administration when there are challenges or difficulties
 - Supports students in their professional development/career/graduate school decision-making

Role of Faculty Advisors – Cont.

When should I contact the Faculty Advisor?

- Frequent Absence, Repeated lateness
- Late Papers or frequent requests for extensions
- Lack of communication (e.g., no response to emails) and/or other unprofessional behavior
- Health or mental health concerns and/or disclosure of difficulty related to basic needs (housing, food, etc.)
- Email the advisor early on when situation arises. If no response or if problems continue, email the appropriate Program Director
- Educational/Performance Review Committee & Consultations and Reviews

These sheets will be sent out by Chelsea Lebron a week or so before final grades are due.

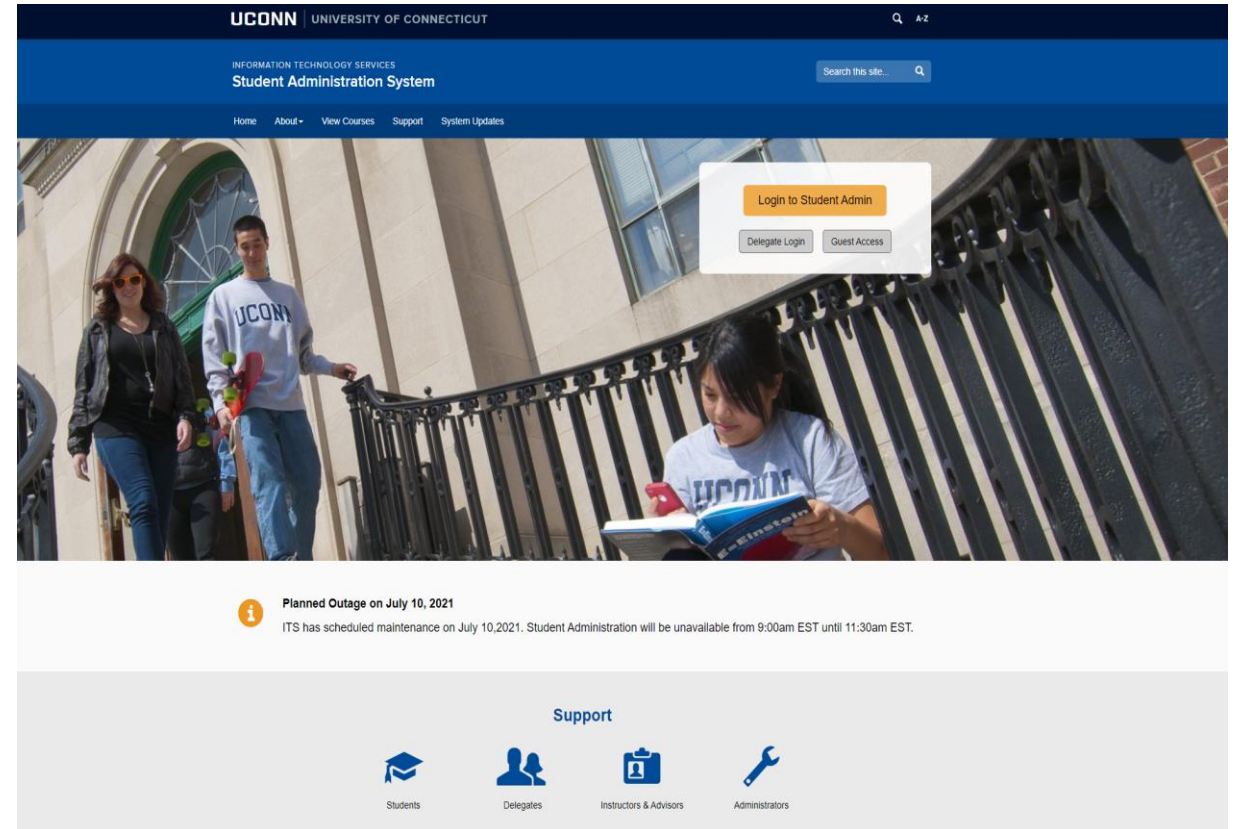

Brief Student Admin & HuskyCT Overview

Student Administration System

StudentAdmin

- The PeopleSoft Student Administration (Student Admin) system is a collection of interactive course and enrollment information and tools, which students will use starting with the admissions stage and continuing through graduation. A main feature of the system is the online registration tool, which enables students and their advisors to plan and enroll in classes.

HuskyCT is UConn's name for the Blackboard learning management system used. HuskyCT sites are used for face-to-face classes and fully online classes.

The use of HuskyCT is so widespread that students expect to see a HuskyCT site for each class they are taking and are worried when they don't.

Most common uses of HuskyCT:

- send announcements
- post content and
- post grades

Instructors also use HuskyCT for

- online submission of assignments, discussions, and quizzes.
